CLERK'S UPDATE

- 3/11/24 The Clerk will be on holiday 14 April through 21 April.
- 3/11/25 The Clerk spoke with J Bailey on 16 March and expressed FPC concerns/comments as a reply to her 2 March email:
1. Grit bin in village hall parking lot not being filled in a timely fashion - part of the problem being Turton Gardens is not an adopted road.
 2. Would like new grit bins on junction of High St/Turton Gardens and Moors Lane.
 3. WCC has a new plan in motion whereby PCs (or other bodies?) purchase bins and WCC fills - she didn't know anything about this proposal.
 4. No help from locals in terms of clearing roads/storing grit and it really isn't reasonable to expect FPC to organize these arrangements.
 5. WCC hasn't really delivered on improving winter conditions in the parish, but FPC is not aware of any specific "promises" generated from the Winter Review of the spring/summer 2010.
- 3/11/26 Schedule of Correspondence Not Yet Replied To
WCC: Bold Review of Subsidized Public Transport...Due by 1 April
Questionnaires were made available and a notice of the Review was posted on the notice board. The Council has not been approached by a parishioner seeking representation.
